

CFMEU

VICTORIA

Vaccination questions and answers

Q - Can the operator of a construction site refuse to allow an unvaccinated worker onto the work site?

A- Yes, they must comply with the directions of the Chief Health Officer by law

Q- Can Site Operators keep record of my vaccination status?

A- Yes, Site Operators are required by law to collect and hold information about all workers vaccination status.

Q- What happens if I don't disclose my vaccination status?

A- The Site Operator must treat you as if you are unvaccinated.

Q- What is considered unvaccinated?

A- Under Public Health Directions, people who have not received a dose of the COVID-19 vaccine.

Q- What is an "exempted person"?

A- If you have obtained certification from a medical practitioner. Exemption needs to cover that you are unable, because of a medical situation - to receive a dose, or a further dose, of a COVID-19 vaccine.

For further details see Maurice Blackburn overview

